Obituary

Shine Ester was born to the late Ora Lee Houston Thompson and Woodie Thompson, Jr. on June 22, 1957. She transitioned this life on May 4, 2017.

Sister Shine Ester accepted Jesus Christ at an early age and joined First Baptist Church of Courtland where her membership remained until her death.

Mrs. Thompson-Banargent was a 1975 graduate of Courtland High School and worked at Wayne Farms for many years until her health failed.

Shine Ester was always a caring, giving, and joyful person. She was also an excellent cook and enjoyed preparing food. However, a stroke 6 years ago caused her disposition to change and she was no longer outgoing but more reserved and became a woman of few words. Yet, every now and then you would see a glimpse of the "Old Shine" in something she would say or do.

She was preceded in death by her parents; sisters, Janie Tullos, Lucille Armstrong, Katherine Swoopes, and Laura Halfacre; brother, James East.

Life is But a Stopping Place

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be.
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way.
We all were meant to learn some things
but never meant to stay.

Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey is quicker,
For some the journey is slow.

And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.
