About Phil . . .

Phil Lynn Orr was born January 26, 1966 to Phillip Orr and the late Margeurite Patton Jones in Lawrence County, Alabama. He departed this life on April 9, 2019 in Courtland, AL.

Phil confessed hope in Christ at an early age and joined Jackson Chapel C.M.E. Church.

Phil was a very devoted husband, father, uncle, and a very good provider for his family. Many days you could see him outside washing his family vehicles, or tending his garden and yard around his home. He took pride in making sure that they all were clean and beautiful. Those that knew him well, knew that he was a fun-loving and caring person.

Phil leaves to cherish his memory: his sweetheart and loving wife, Tangela Key Orr of Courtland, AL; two children, his daughter, Tyra Orr and son, Tyris Orr whom he adored, both of Courtland, AL; one brother, Printess (Andrea) Orr of Decatur, AL; two sisters, Margaret Diane Wade and Bobbie (Bernard) Mason both of Decatur; seven uncles, eight aunts; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Phil will be missed and we love him, but GOD loved him best.

Crossing Over

*Oh, please don't feel guilty
It was just my time to go.
I see you are still feeling sad,
And the tears just seem to flow.
We all come to earth for our lifetime,
And for some it's not many years
I don't want you to keep crying
You are shedding so many tears
I haven't really left you
Even though it may seem so
I have just gone to my heavenly home,
And I'm closer to you than you know.
Just believe that when you say
my name, I'm standing next to you,
I know you long to see me,
But there's nothing I can do.
But I'll still send you messages
And hope you understand,
That when your time comes to
"cross over," I'll be there to take your hand.
