

23rd Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

² He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

³ He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴ Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

⁵ Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Belinda Adams was born in Decatur, Alabama on February 23, 1958. She was the daughter of Margeret Adams Keith and the late Joe Lewis. She transitioned from this life to eternal glory on April 12, 2019 at Decatur Morgan Hospital – Parkway Campus in Decatur, AL, surrounded by her mother, after a courageous battle with cancer. Belinda was a fighter and believed God for his healing.

Belinda attended Austin High School.

Belinda enjoyed spending time with family and friends, especially her granddaughter, “Kari”.

Belinda was preceded in death by her father.

Belinda leaves to cherish her precious memory: her daughters, Stephanie Adams and Lakeisha Adams; son, Darius Adams; loving mother, Margeret Adams Keith; granddaughters, Akari Adams and Tariona Adams; one sister, Wanda Sue Adams all of Decatur; two brothers, Charles Adams and Larry Adams of Clarksville, TN; uncle, Sonny Adams of Cleveland, OH; special cousin, Carol Guster of Decatur; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Recessional

*We little knew that day that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly; in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.*
