

Acknowledgment

The family of the late William Frank Jackson Jr. wishes to express our sincere thanks to you for your presence and outpouring of love during our family's time of bereavement. We are grateful for your prayers, calls, visits, and many acts of kindness. May God forever bless each and every one of you.

Due to COVID-19, the family of the late William F. Jackson Jr. will not be receiving visitors at this time. In addition, there will not be a repast. Thank you for your understanding.

Interment

Decatur City Cemetery - Sterrs Division

REYNOLDS
FUNERAL HOME

103 13th Avenue, NW
Decatur, Alabama 35601
www.reynoldsfh.com

A Celebration of Life for

Mr. William Frank Jackson, Jr.

September 13, 1947 ~ February 20, 2021

Friday, February 26, 2021
11:00 a.m.

Decatur City Cemetery – Sterrs Division
Washington Street, NW
Decatur, AL 35601

The Reverend James O. Robinson, Officiating
Mt. Zion C.P. Church in America, Pastor

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.
Proverbs 3:5-6

Life's Reflection...

William, better known as "Jr." was born September 13, 1947, to the late William F. Jackson, Sr. and Mattie Pearl Jackson. He was a resident of Decatur, AL for 73 years. On Saturday, February 20, 2021, William transitioned to his eternal reward at Hospice Family Care in Huntsville, Alabama.

William was a graduate of Lakeside High School class of 1965. Upon graduation, he attended Alabama A&M University. He was employed at Amoco Chemicals where he retired after 30 years of service.

In 1970, he was united with the love of his life, the late, Carolyn Jackson, and from this union, they were blessed with three children, William III, LaDon, and Keith. As parents, William and Carolyn taught their children to be obedient, love God, learn how to work, and appreciate life.

William is preceded in death by his loving wife, Carolyn Jackson. His parents William and Mattie Pearl Jackson, one brother, Curtis L. Smith, and two sisters Wilma Frances Jackson and Shirley Jackson Nevett.

William will greatly be missed by his special niece, Karen Jackson.

His memory will be shared by his three sons, William III (Shana), LaDon (Jackie), and Keith (friend-Christina); four grandchildren, Haley, Kaylin, Keri Dawn, and Keith, Jr., one sister Elsie Coger, one brother, Darryl Jackson, two sisters-in-law, Mildred (Ralph) McKinney and Gladys Smith. In addition non-marital children include: Karockas (Rocky), Iris, Keshia, Desmond and Jamari; many other nieces, great-nieces, nephews, great-nephews, and other relatives.

Order of Service

The Gathering

Opening Song and Prayer

The Reverend George Allen, Jr.

Scripture

Old & New Testament

The Rev. Rodrick Stallworth

Reflections

Mr. Harold Batts
Mr. Ike Lockett

Selection

Elder Charles Jackson

Eulogy

The Reverend James Otis Robinson

Selection

Elder Charles Jackson

Closing Prayer/Committal

The Rev. Rodrick Stallworth

MEMORIES...

MEMORIES...

BROKEN CHAIN

by Ron Tranmer

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life, we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

BROKEN CHAIN

by Ron Tranmer

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life, we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

