

Immortality

When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
while thinking of the many things,
we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you,
and each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me,
please try to understand,
that an Jesus came and called my name, and took me by the hand.

Life's Reflections . . .

Doris Ann McDaniel Jackson was born to Dave and Lila Mae Owens McDaniel on March 3, 1941. She departed this life on Tuesday, May 4, 2021 at her residence.

Doris accepted Christ at an early age and was an active member of Freeman Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church until becoming ill.

Doris received great joy by showing her love for people through cooking. Her desire was for no one to be hungry and was always willing to feed those in need.

Doris loved spending time with her children, grandchildren, extended family, planting flower and working in her garden.

Doris retired from Delphi after working many years.

Doris was preceded in death by: her husband, Edonice Jackson; her parents, Dave and Lila Mae McDaniel; two sisters, Linda Faye Echols and Odessa Lee.

Doris leaves to cherish her memory: three loving and devoted children, Beverly Boyd (Larry) of Florence, AL, Timothy Jackson of Moulton, AL and Michelle Elliott of Harvest, AL; grandchildren, Senethia Duke, Oshoa Jones, Keiana Willis, Angel Elliott, Tyrie Fletcher and Jackson Alexander; sisters, Lois Garner (James) of Town Creek, AL, Margaret Warren of Landersville AL, Alice Chapman of Decatur, AL; a very special niece, Freda Jackson, who provided unconditional love and cared for her aunt Doris until her death; a special god son that she loved dearly, Wade Stover; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
