

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Name of Pervis Williams express our sincere thanks for the expressions of love during our time of bereavement.

A Prayer

The angels gather near your side so very close to you for they knew the pain and suffering that you were going through. I thought about so many things as I held tightly to your hand. Oh how I wished that you were strong and happy once again. But your eyes were looking homeward to that place beyond the sky where Yeshua held his outstretched arms. It was time to say good-bye. I struggled with my selfish thoughts for I wanted you to stay and not let you go but Yeshua knew the answer and I knew you wanted to go so we gave you your wish and brought you home so that you may breathe your last breath while we let go to be absent from your body and present with Yeshua.

Services Entrusted to the Care of Craig R. Tremble Funeral Home

*Rev. Craig R. Tremble, Owner/Mortician
Yolanda A. Tremble, Owner*

*www.craigrtremblefuneralhome.com
ctremble@frontiernet.net*

Statesboro Chapel
238 West Main Street
Statesboro, GA
912 764 2100
912 764 2380 Fax

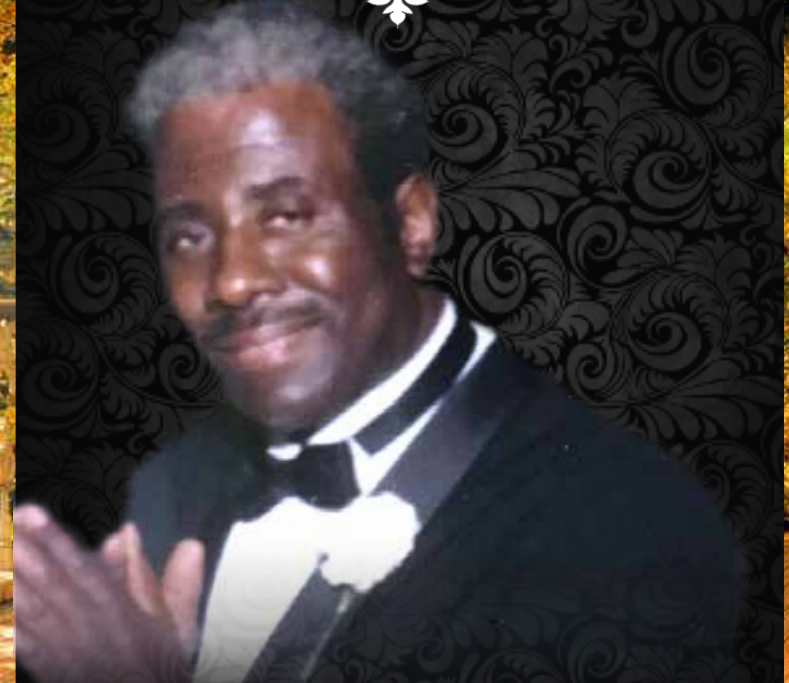

Pembroke Chapel
66 Ledford Street
Pembroke, GA
912 653 2600
912 653 2677 Fax

"A Family Serving Families"

Pervis Williams
November 16, 1939 – August 31, 2017

Saturday, September 16, 2017
11:00 AM

Craig R. Tremble Funeral Home
Statesboro Chapel
238 West Main St
Statesboro, GA

Rev. Craig R. Tremble, Officiating

Internment- St. Mary's Baptist Church, Statesboro, GA

Obituary

Order of Service

Pervis Williams was born November 16, 1939 in Statesboro GA to the late Ernest and Eudell Beasley Williams. He met and married Leatrice Lester and they later moved to Brooklyn, NY. From this union, they had three children.

Pervis accepted Jesus Christ at a young age and in his early twenties, sung in a Gospel group. Pervis was a truck driver who worked long hours to provide for his family. He and his wife, Leatrice retired and stayed in their home in Brooklyn. He took care for his wife until her "sleep". It was his desire to live his last years in the comfort of his home in Brooklyn. On August 31, 2017, Yahweh allowed him to take his last earthly breath in his home.

He leaves to remember and cherish him, three children: two sons, Freddie Williams of NJ and Cleveland Williams of Brooklyn, NY; one daughter, Eudell Williams (Jeffrey) Hayes of Rochelle, NY; six grandchildren, Ashley, Aaron, Rockima, Aatika, Jawhar and AAliya; one great-grand; six sisters, Shirley Williams and Madie Williams of Manhattan, NY, Wynette Williams of New York, NY, and Glenda Williams, Patricia Williams, and Vivian Williams all of Atlanta, GA; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

1 Thessalonians 4:13

But brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be ignorant, concerning them that are asleep in death, so that you do not sorrow like the rest of mankind who have no hope.

Processional.....Video Music

Solo.....Sis. Ethel Lane

Invocation

Scripture

Old Testament.....Psalm 23

New Testament

Solo.....Sis. Ethel Lane
"I'll Fly Away"

Remarks (2 minutes please).....Anyone

Obituary & Acknowledgements
Craig R. Tremble Funeral Home Staff

Song ..... "You just don't wanna know"

Eulogy.....Rev. Craig R. Tremble

Recessional..... "Oh I want to see him"

Repast

Pentecostal Church of God
125 Morris Street, Statesboro, GA
(The repast is for immediate family only)

P
E
R
V
I
S

W
I
L
L
I
A M
S