Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me, I'm not gone. My soul is at rest, my heart lives on. Light a candle for me to see and hold on to my memory, but save your tears for I'm still here, by your side through the years.

The family expresses their warm and sincere gratitude to all who have shown many loving ways to show acts of kindness during their time of sorry. Perhaps it was a call, a visit, a card of a prayer whispered for strength and acceptance. Perhaps you brought food, or simply wished us well. Whatever role you may have played, we shall remain eternally grateful to each of you. May God Bless and shower each of you with His bountiful Blessing!

Obituary

Mrs. Pearline Hagins was born to the late Harold & Ruby Lee Cook Smith in Bulloch County on January 9, 1947. She was a member of the Rehovia Baptist Church. Pearline loved to cook and spend time with family on all occasions. She always made you laugh with her out going personality.

On September 15th Pearline answered the call from her heavenly Father and had to make the transition from her earthly home to her heavenly home. For to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. She is preceded in death by her parents, and her three brothers.

She leaves to cherish precious and fond memories her loving daughters Melissa (Wayne) Hansberry and Rachel (Major) Stewart both of Loganville, Ga.; her loving sons Ceasar (Karen) Cross of Conyers, Ga., and Johnny Roy Hagins of Statesboro, Ga.; her loving sisters Ernestine Lester of Atlanta, Ga., Gladys (Harry) Campbell and Linda Faye Mikell both of Statesboro, Ga.; her loving brothers Jewel (Linda) Smith, Ernest Smith, and Larry Smith all of Statesboro, Ga., and James Smith of Plant City, Fl.; 11 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
