

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Obituary

DARRYL JEROME BARNES was born on July 4, 1964 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Aretha Ann Hall Barnes of Rehoboth, Delaware and Robert Barnes Sr. of Wilson, North Carolina.

Darryl was educated at IS 210. He was a loving person who made an outstanding impact on family and friends. He enjoyed being a comedian and made everyone laugh. He was employed as a janitor and later as a stockman.

Darryl spent his leisure time cooking and listening to music. His favorite viewing pleasure in film and television included: Bruce Lee, The Honeymooners, Twilight Zone and Family Feud.

On Wednesday, October 9, 2019, our Fatherly God called Darryl Jerome Barnes into His eternal care.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving family: Three sisters – Sheila Jones, Dakota Barnes and Belinda Barnes (predeceased); Two brothers – Robert Lee Barnes and Hiawatha Barnes (predeceased); Four nieces – Shamone Barnes, Angelina Afolyan, Tameka Barnes and Kenya Barnes; Three nephews – Steven Barnes, Eddie Charon, and Stephon Charon; Four great nephews, Three great nieces, and One great-great nephew; and a host of other relatives and devoted friends.
