Do not stand at my grave and weep
 I am not there. I do not sleep.
 I am a thousand winds that blow.
 I am the diamond glints on snow.
 I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
 I am the gentle autumn rain.
 When you awaken in the morning's hush
 I am the swift uplifting rush
 Of quiet birds in circled flight.
 I am the soft stars that shine at night.
 Do not stand at my grave and cry;
 I am not there. I did not die.

From, You Loving Great Granddaughter
 Chatyce Robinson

Her Story

Our mother Cora was a warm, compassionate, and vibrant woman who always went out of her way to help others, no matter what. She was a proud and dignified woman who had a passion for life. She had a wonderful sense of humor which endeared her to everyone she came in contact with and it was a great testament to her nature that she formed so many long-lasting friendships over the years.

Ms. Cora Lee Jeter departed this earthly life on Wednesday, December 16, 2020, at Providence Northeast Columbia, South Carolina. She was born June 17, 1934 to John Jeter and Johnnie Mae Sanders Jeter. This union accompanied a host of brothers and sisters who have transitioned, she was also reunited with her son Dannie Jeter.

Cora was known as "Mother dear," for her sweet and loving care that she provided to anyone who passed her way. She leaves behind to cherish her precious memories, her children, Mazell (Ronald) Williams, Shirley Jeter, Mary (Bryon) Williams, Phillip (Vivian) Jeter, Carmichael (Johnnie) Jeter, Cathy (Thomas) Hall, and her granddaughter Tyshan Holmes that she reared in her home; seventeen grandchildren, thirty-five great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends that will truly cherish the memories of her.

Mommy Dearest

Mommy Dearest you will always be
Our mother so loving and so loved by us
For God has taken you to be by his side
Now in Heaven is where you will reside

You have blessed our life in so many ways
I will cherish our memories until the end of my days
You left me too soon and this was not part of our plan
But God's wishes always come before those of man

Without you we must travel the path alone
No longer my guide, the way you had shown
Your heart may have been weak, but you were strong
For your loving embrace we will always long

God sent you to us as a special gift from above
To teach us life's lessons and shower us with your love
We will always remember your beautiful and smiling face
In our heart you will always have a very special place

A special bond we shared like no other
For this is possible for only Son, Daughter and Mother
We thanked God for each day we were able to share
But without you in our life it is too difficult to bear

Being with God, we hope you will find joy and peace
In this we can find comfort and some happiness at least
For Mommy Dearest you will always be
Our Mother so loving and so loved by us
