

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done.*

*I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.*

*I'd like the tears for those who grieve,
to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When my life is done.*

FUNERAL HOMES

Norma Phyllis Tangen was born July 4, 1926, on the family farm in New London Township, the daughter of Otis and Belinda (Roisum) Hjelle. She grew on the family farm south west of New London where she attended country grade school. On February 12, 1944, Norma was united in marriage to George Tangen. They made their home in New London where she worked as a homemaker and babysat for many families. Norma and George were able to share in 68 years of marriage before his death on July 10, 2012.

Norma attended Peace Lutheran Church. She enjoyed children, people watching, handwork and baking, being especially known for her famous oatmeal cookies and brown bread.

Norma died on Sunday, September 8, 2019, at the age of 93. She is survived by her daughters, Sandra (Don) Amdahl of Atwater and Jean (Joel) Hartelt of Hutchinson, son-in-law, Bob Monson of New London; seven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and three sisters-in-law and numerous nieces and nephews.

Norma was preceded in death by her parents; husband, George; daughter, Carol Monson; and siblings: Kern, Gertrude and Beatrice.
