After Glow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times & laughing and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun,

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

"I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course.

I have kept the faith." - 2 Timothy 4:7

There's no need to cry, no reason to be sad.
Just reflect on the memories and good times we had.
So every time I'm feeling down or a little alone,
I know my brother is with me, he only went home.
You kept a smile on my face and the others you loved.
And I know you're still smiling from Heaven above.
There are very few words for an occasion like this.
But you will always be B.S. Hendrix, our "Big Brother".

Love,

Big Sister Eula, Brothers Roy & James
