

Floral Attendants

Nieces

Active Pallbearers

Nephews

Honorary Pallbearers

Arzell Sain

James Crowder

Montague McNeal

Ricky Trice

James Brashers

Stanley Trice

Acknowledgement

My family expresses our heartfelt appreciation for every act of kindness expressed during this difficult time. The calls, texts, cards, Facebook posts, meals, and especially prayers have been a source of encouragement.

A gratitude of thanks to caregivers, Annette Granberry, Renee Tomlinson, and to the staff of Providence Place Assisted Living Community in Mt. Juliet for providing excellent care and service during Mom's residency. Also, to Alive Hospice of Nashville for the support and services provided to Mom and my family.

- Hyrm L. Sain

Interment

*Oak Grove Church of Christ Cemetery
Henderson, Tennessee*

Services entrusted to

*Dixie Funeral Home
750 Bills St. Bolivar, Tennessee 38008*

A CELEBRATION OF

Life

Sunrise: June 20, 1931

Sunset: February 13, 2021

Cinda Therecia (Trice) Sain

Saturday, February 27, 2021 11:00 a.m.

*Tate Road Church of Christ
665 Tate Road ~ Bolivar, Tennessee*

*Bro. George Dotson, Officiant
Bro. Larry Prince, Eulogist*

Obituary

When your work is all complete, He will gently call you home; Oh, the joy of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come! On February 13, 2021, God sent angels to transition Cinda Therecia (Trice) Sain home.

She was born on June 20, 1931 in Henderson, Tennessee to the late Harold Trice, Sr. and Hattie Lou Woodruff Trice.

At an early age Cinda gave her life to Christ and was baptized at Oak Grove Church of Christ in Henderson, Tennessee. She was educated in the Chester County, Tennessee school system. After graduating from Chester County Training High School in 1950, Cinda graduated from Arnold's Beauty School in Jackson, Tennessee.

On November 7, 1970 she married the late Arthur L. Sain and moved to Bolivar, Tennessee. One child Hyrm L. Sain, was born to this union. For over 46 years, she was an active member of the Tate Road Church of Christ, in Bolivar, Tennessee.

For several years Cinda worked as a licensed Cosmetologist at Netha Ross' Beauty Shop in Henderson, TN. She also worked as a seamstress at various garment manufacturing companies throughout Chester, Hardeman, and Madison counties. Her hobbies included quilting, cooking, gardening, and canning fruit preserves and vegetables.

When her health began to decline, she moved to Mt. Juliet, TN to be close to her son. She placed membership and regularly worshipped at the Scott Avenue Church of Christ, Nashville, TN as her health permitted.

Cinda leaves to cherish her memory, son, Hyrm Len (Cosmelitia) Sain and granddaughter, Hailee Sain (Hermitage, TN); three brothers: Ardie (Betty) Trice (Nashville, TN), Johnnie Trice (Henderson, TN), and Jimmie (Annie Jewell) Trice (Cordova, TN); two sisters, Mary Davis and Patsy McNeal (Henderson, TN); three sisters in law, Jewell Trice (Pinson, TN), Addie Trice (Nashville, TN), and Elverta Crowder (Detroit, MI); and a host of nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by husband, Arthur Lee Sain; parents, Harold and Hattie Lou Trice; brothers, Harold Trice and Charles Trice; and sisters, baby sister Trice and Estelle Trice.

Order of Service

Processional

Congregational Hymn

*Quinton Carey, Minister of Music
Church of Christ at Jackson Street
Nashville, TN*

Scripture— Psalms 23

*Shobeck Dethrow, Minister
Forrest Hills Church of Christ
Selmer, TN*

Prayer

*Joe Trice, Nephew
White Ave Church of Christ
Henderson, TN*

Congregational Hymn

Quinton Carey

Acknowledgements

Edna Ford, Tate Road Church of Christ

Words of Comfort

George Dotson

*Raymond Bass, Minister
Scott Avenue Church of Christ
Nashville, TN*

Reflections

*Montague McNeal, Nephew
White Avenue Church of Christ
Henderson, TN*

Obituary Read Silently

Congregational Hymn

Quinton Carey

Eulogy

Larry Prince

Closing Prayer

*Christopher Trice, Nephew
Schrader Lane Church of Christ
Nashville, TN*

Recessional