

"Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am."

Darryl's Story

In the early hours of October 22, 1986, the late Darryl A. James and Marilyn T. James were blessed with the birth of a son and they named him Darryl Anthony James II.

Darryl's story is one of love for family, friends, fashion, joking around, good food, and good music.

At an early age he accepted Christ at Union Valley Baptist Church and they are now one in spirit.

Darryl attended Raineshaven Elementary School and was a graduate of Whitehaven High School, class of 2005. Darryl remained close friends with many of his classmates.

His professional career consisted of employment with FedEx and Burger King. He attended William R. Moore Tech/heating and air conditioning and Strayer University, with a concentration in Business. He also had a strong desire/goal to open and operate his own barbering and beauty salon.

Darryl enjoyed his family, friends and looking 'fresh' as he called it. He loved joking around, making others laugh and having a good time. His personality and smile would light up a room and most of all he never met a stranger. He lived his life to the fullest.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory: his mother; Marilyn T. James of Bolivar, TN; one sister; Eboni T. James of Memphis, TN; grandmother; Cleaster Sain; aunts; Rosalyn Coleman of WI, Michelle Sain of Lewisburg, TN, and Marshall Harper of Memphis, TN; niece; Jade M. James; Son; Quintavius; a special friend; Quinterria of Memphis, TN. He also leaves a host of nieces, cousins, aunts, uncles, friends and extended family whom loved him dearly.

Darryl Anthony James-II is preceded in death by his father; Darryl Anthony James; grandmother; Ruth James; great grandmother; Rosie Hunt; grandfather; Oscar E. James; Uncle; Oscar E. James, Jr.; Aunt; Rosemary Shannon-Averyhart; cousin; Marcus Shannon.
