THE BROKEN CHAIN

We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

*G*od saw you was getting tired, and a cure was not to be.

So, He put his arms around you and whispered, "Come to me."
A golden Heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

Family Memories

Dear Momma

Dear Momma, here I stand trying to stay strong, wishing you were still here with me, to help me get along.

Although I know you were hurting, and the pain got hard to bear; I can now feel so much relief to know you are in the Master's care.

One less chair there will be, at our family table.

Even though our hearts are broken, we know that God is able.

As time goes on, I know that my heart will heal from the pain.

You always taught me in order to enjoy the sunshine,

I must endure the rain.

You are the missing link in our family chain,

the link that held us together.

But I know in my heart the day will come, when we will all come together. The hardest thing for me to do, is to bid you farewell and goodbye;

Dear mama know that I love you, enjoy your mansion in the sky.

Love your children

A Grandma's Love

The love of a grandma is wonderful and enduring kind of love.

That had to be created from our Father from above.

Your laugh, your smile, your wisdom, your touch. Your face, your presence, we will miss very much. The bond that we had cannot be explained and it grew through the years, but now that you are gone, it makes me breakdown in tears.

Although we have hoped to see you, to assure you and hold your hand.

We now realized that is was not in the Father's Plan.

We are left behind to pick up the pieces, your spirit lifted away like a dove.

We will never truly understand the depth of a Grandma's love.

Love your grandchildren, great-grandchild,
great-great-grandchildren, and great great-great-grandchild
