In Loving Memory of a Very Special HUSBAND

When God was making HUSBANDS as far as I can see,
He made a special soulmate especially for me.
He made a perfect gentleman, compassionate, and kind,
with more love and affection than you could ever wish to find.

He gave my darling HUSBAND a heart of solid gold,
he gave me wonderful memories only my heart can hold.
He was someone I could talk to that no one can replace.
He was someone I could laugh with till tears ran down my face.

Next time we meet will be at the heavens door;
When I see you standing there, I won't cry anymore.
I will put my arms around you and kiss your smiling face;
then the pieces of my broken heart will fall back in place.

*Love you always,
Stacy*

If Roses Grow in Heaven

If yellow roses grow in heaven, Lord, pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my brother's arms, and tell him they're from me....

Tell him that I love and miss him; and when he turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon his cheek, and hold him for a while....

Because remembering him is easy, I do it everyday.
But there is an ache within my heart, that will never go away....

*Love you Always,
your sister Javonna McKinnie*

You Never Said I'm Leaving

You never said I'm leaving, you never said goodbye.
You were gone before I knew it, and only God knew why.

A million times I needed you, a million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still.
In my heart you hold a place, that no one could ever fill.

It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone
For part of me went with you, the day God took you home.

Love you Daddy, Bridney

SUNSET
OCTOBER 21, 2021

Orlando McKinnie was born October 3, 1975 to Issac and Geneva McKinnie. He departed this life Thursday, October 21, 2021.

Orlando graduated from Bolivar Central High School. At an early age, he professed Christ as his Lord and Savior at Greater New Hope MB Church under the leadership of Elder James Patterson. Orlando started his trucking career at the age of twenty-one with Star Transportation. He worked with them until his health failed. He had great work ethics, very sociable, fun, loving, and caring person with such an amazing smile.

He was preceded in death by his brother Gregory McKinnie; both grandmothers: Mamie B. McKinnie and Sallie Mae Crisp; both grandfathers: John L. McKinnie and Knox Crisp.

Orlando leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife: Stacy McKinnie of Hickory Valley, TN; his parents: Issac and Geneva McKinnie of Bolivar, TN; one brother: Lane (Lisa) McKinnie of Smyrna, TN; one sister: Javonna McKinnie of Bolivar, TN; two daughters: LaKyah Williams of Bolivar, TN and Bridney Williams of South Carolina; four grandchildren; Kenjavius Williams, Na'Bria Burnett, Jamarie Moore, and Kingston Woods; two godchildren: Brennan Lake and Jayla Lee Rivers; two step-daughters: Sheragin Jones and Dianesha Jones and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, family and friends.

Recessional

You are at peace, your soul is at rest, but that won't stop the tears as I remember the special times we shared. You really were the best dad. I hold you forever in my heart and in my memory my precious dad. So this is not goodbye, because you're still here by my side holding onto me tight. Fly high my guardian angel.

Love Always Your Baby Girl Kyah
