When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry
The Way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too

When tomorrow starts with out me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I Dearly Love

So When Tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart

Obituary

Doris Jones Green was born in Bolivar, TN on April 24, 1951 to George and Mary Boyd Jones. Her parents and one brother, George, preceded her in death.

Doris accepted Christ as her personal savior at a young age and joined New Bethel Baptist Church where she remained a faithful member until her health started to fail. She attended Bolivar Industrial Schools.

On October 26, 2021, the Lord needed another angel and called her home.

Doris leaves to cherish her memory: four children; Alphonzo (Amy), Orlando (Anna), Tiffany, and Cameron (Rachel); two sisters; Alice Cross and Clara (Sonny) Lake; one brother; Jerrell (Cynthia) Weathers; one sister in law; Lucille Jones; one uncle; Charlie Boyd; fifteen grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews to whom she considered her children. Doris truly was a lover of children, because like Peter Pan, she was a big kid at heart always smiling and playing.

My sweet Gale,
Thank you for loving me so much and taking care of me.

Orlando,
Thank you for giving up your life for me.
