RECESSIONAL

God Saw

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hill was hard to climb;
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered “Peace Be Mine.”

The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights have passed;
The ever present worn-out frame
Has found “Sweet Rest At Last!”

Love you Always,
Your Sisters,
Lee Anna & Willie

Missing You Always

You never said I'm leaving
You never said goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.

A million times I needed you
A million times I cried,
If love alone could have saved you
You never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still,
In my heart I hold a place
That only you can fill.

It broke my heart to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
As part of me went with you
The day God took you home.

Love you mom,
Your children

Auntie

Thanks for being our aunt!

You are never forgotten, nor will you ever be.

We will remember thee, for we are so grateful for who you were to us.

The love and laughter that you rendered us, will always live in our hearts

And Ain't Nothing You Can Do About It.

Love Always,
Your Nieces

Grandma

If flowers grow in heaven Lord, then pick a bunch for me then place them in my Grandma's arms and tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love and miss her and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile.

Love Always,
Your children and grandchildren

Jo Ann

You will forever be missed. Your last words to me was
"The Lord Got Me!"

Love You Always
Your Sister,
Jackie

Madea

I will always love and adore you. You accepted my children and I into your family and treated us as your own, But now,
I must accept that like Job 14:14.....
"Your Change Has Come".

Goodbye Precious
Your other daughter,
Sylvia Lumpkins

OBITUARY

On November 4, 2021 at Jackson Madison County General Hospital, Jo Ann Haddix went home to be with the Lord. JoAnn was born to the late Mr. Gilmore Wyatt and Jessie Lue Wyatt-Clark on July 27, 1940 in Newbern, TN.

JoAnn was preceded in death by; one son: Arbra Joe Haddix; four sisters: Louise Clark, Clara Barber, Virginia Mae Dell Smith, and Ida Mae Anderson; two brothers: Theodore Wyatt and Robert Clark.

JoAnn completed her education at the Hardeman County School District. She was employed at Harman Automotive until the plant closed and she later retired. JoAnn confessed a hope in Christ and later joined Bethlehem Baptist Church #1 under the leadership of Reverend David L. Perry.

JoAnn leaves to cherish four children; Lula (Every) Harris, Clay Haddix, John Haddix, and Oller Ray Haddix; three sisters: Jackie Todd, Willie Heard, and Lee

Anna (Chester) Clardy; fifteen grandchildren, forty four great-grandchildren, four great-great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends that loved her dearly.

We Will Never Forget You

Joe Evelyn Ann Haddix
