Poem

*God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And He saw you were tired.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's Garden just be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you would never get well
on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
so He closed your weary eyelids and whispered
"Peace be Thine". It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you the day
God called you home.

Obituary

Mr. Franklin "Frankie" Lee McNeill was born on February 28, 1957 in Harnett County, North Carolina to Ernestine C. Ray and Fredrick Bowden. On May 6, 2019, God saw fit to call Frankie home to eternal rest.

Frankie completed his education at Lillington High School where he was part of the 1976 graduating class. He later received his CDL's and was a dedicated truck driver for over 10 years.

While Frankie was a man of few words, he was a loving son, father, grandfather, cousin and friend to so many. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to those he loved and cared for.

Frankie was a modern-day handy man; he was a man with a plan one could say. There wasn't too many things that he could not fix; and those things that brought forth a challenge, if you gave him time...he would make a way. Not only was Frankie known for being our "Mr. Fix It", but he was also known for having the biggest "sweet tooth" ever! It did not matter if it was cake, cookies, ice cream, pies or candy bars; if sweets were around, he was there. During family functions, one might say "Hey, where's Frankie?"; all you had to do was go find the desserts...and normally he would be sitting in a chair close by waiting and ready to dig in.

As these challenging days approach us, let us reflect on and cherish the countless memories that we share of our precious loved one.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Ernestine C. Ray and step dad, Lonnie; his father, Fredrick Bowden; his grandmother, Christine Currie and his grandfather, Larnie McNeill.

Franklin leaves to cherish his memories: one son, Ontario Shealey (Jennifer); one grandson, O'Shari Shealey; one granddaughter, Ember Shealey all of Durham, NC; two aunts: Pearlle Ray of Lillington, NC and Bessie Elliott of Bunnlevel, NC; two uncles: Connie Currie (Nora) and Charles Currie (Ethel) all of Lillington, NC; one great aunt, Margie McNeill of Lillington, NC; two special cousins: Diana McDougald and Willie Currie both of Lillington, NC, the Harris Family of Durham, NC and a host of relatives and friends.
