

When I'm Gone

*When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.*

*Forget unkind words I have spoken;
Remember some good I have done,
Forget that I ever had a heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.*

*Forget that I have stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought
Some hard battles and won,
Ere the close of the day,*

*Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day,
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay*

*And come in the evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west,
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.*

Terrie Anne Most was born on March 25, 1960 to Sondra Most in Belle Fourche, SD. At a young age her mother Sondra passed away, and Terrie was adopted and raised by her grandparents, John and Anne Most. After Terrie graduated high school, she then moved to Aberdeen and started to work at several local restaurants as a waitress. She later started working at Avera St. Luke's Hospital.

Terrie met the love of her life Jeff Frerichs and they were married on June 23, 2000. Terrie continued to work at Avera St. Luke's Hospital for over 20 years where she was still employed at the time of her death as a Provider Based Specialist. She was always trying to further her education by taking online classes to better herself and go the extra mile for her employment.

Terrie enjoyed country living, being outdoors, riding her Harley, and going on road trips. She also enjoyed going to rummage sales and second-hand thrift stores, making jigsaw puzzles, writing poetry, her cats, watching her favorite daytime soap operas, and listening to rock-n-roll music. On cold days, Terrie enjoyed warming up by the wood burning stove in her home. In the summer, she could be found relaxing on her deck and grilling food.

Grateful for having shared her life is her husband; sisters, Kay (Rick) Davis and Tracy Halvorson; brother, Todd Halvorson; mother-in-law, JoAnn Frerichs; brother-in-law, Scott (Melanie) Frerichs and their son Hunter; sister-in-law, Patricia (Scott) Brunmaier; niece, Channa Christensen; and great niece, Karlei Medrano.

Terrie is preceded in death by her parents; grandparents; sister, Irene "Rene" Ganje; uncle, Carl Most; and father-in-law, LaVon Frerichs.
