

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Dorothy M. Berkley was the youngest daughter of the late Walter and Frances Berkley. She was born in Edward County Virginia. On May 19, 2019 Dorothy departed this life.

Dorothy was educated in the Prince Edward County School System. At a young age she was involved in the Civil Rights Movement in Virginia. In 1951, Dorothy participated in a student walk out at Robert Russa Morton High School. This event became one of the 5 cases involved in Brown vs the Board of Education.

Dorothy cared greatly for anybody who needed her help. As an adult she worked as a certified Nursing Assistant at Trinity Mission until her retirement.

Dorothy loved her family and whenever time permitted, she thoroughly enjoyed the company of her sisters and brothers when they visited during the summer.

Dorothy was also the loving mother of the late Barbara Yvonne Berkley.

Dorothy leaves to mourn three nieces Audrey (Lamont) Bunche, Danielle and Nadine Berkley, as well as two nephews Curtis and Charley Berkley. And a host of other relatives and friends.
