

LIFE'S JOURNEY

*Every light, road, and journey comes to an end,
it seems that time has come for me.*

*My journey has ended, no more pain or misery,
this journey's over and I'm free no longer wandering, completely at peace.*

No longer will I have to walk alone on life's winding road, a road that often led me astray, for God has come to lead me to a peaceful place.

REFLECTION

Mr. Lint Bolton, Jr. was born on July 21, 1941 in Oglethorpe County, Georgia in the city of Point Peter to the late Ms. Leona Jennings and Mr Lenora Bolton. He was called home on March 7, 2022.

Lint accepted Christ at an early age. He moved to Atlanta in 1965. In 1965, he was united in Holy Matrimony to Elizabeth Davenport. To this union, they were blessed with four children.

Lint worked for Dugan Trucking Line for over 30 years until his retirement 2006. He had a love for life and was dedicated to his family and friends with a special love for his grandchildren. Lint loved hanging out with his friends, watching and talking sports as well as reminiscing over all of the cars he'd had down through the years.

Lint was known for his fashion statement and loved to dress for the occasion. He was also a man of quiet resolve.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Elizabeth D. Bolton, Decatur, GA; four children, Theresa A. Clarke, Athens, GA, Orlando J. (Cathy) Davenport, Snellville, GA, Calvin J. (Rosemary) Bolton, Atlanta, GA and Tanglar C. Bolton, Decatur, GA; ten grandchildren; twelve great-grandchildren; three sisters-in-law all of Atlanta, GA; one special friend, LeRoy Franklin; and a host of nieces and nephews.
