

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call: I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way; I found my place at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow: I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much; Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.*

*Perhaps my life seemed all too brief: Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me; God wanted me now, He set me free.*

As We Look Back

*As we look back over time
We find ourselves wondering .....
Did we remember to thank you enough
For all you have done for us?
For all the times you were by our sides
To help and support us .....
To celebrate our successes
To understand our problems
And accept our defeats?
Or for teaching us by your example,
The value of hard work, good judgment,
Courage and integrity?
We wonder if we ever thanked you
For the sacrifices you made.
To let us have the very best?
And for the simple things
Like laughter, smiles and times we shared?
If we have forgotten to show our
Gratitude enough for all the things you did,
We're thanking you now.
And we are hoping you knew all along,
How much you meant to us.*

FLOYD OWENS SR.

Floyd Owens Sr. "Shoyd" of Steubenville, OH, passed away on Monday, December 21, 2020, at Trinity West in Steubenville, OH. He was born in Lafferty, OH, on May 31, 1933, to Claire Owens and Daniel David Smith. He had a special relationship with his mother; caring for her was his greatest joy.

Floyd worked for over 42 years at Wheeling Pittsburgh Steel, where he retired. He was a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, where he sang in the choir.

He was a family man who treasured spending quality time with his family.

Over the years, he traveled to Washington, D.C., and Boston to visit with loved ones. Floyd loved spending as much time as he could out on the water on one of his boats at the marina. He enjoyed listening to music, going out to restaurants, and eating coconut cream pies.

He is survived by his daughter Elaine Owens, son Floyd Owens Jr, grandchildren, I'eem, David, Sa'Shay, Jasmine, and great-grandchildren. He also leaves behind many people to cherish his memory, nieces, nephews, Mason brothers, and more.

Floyd is preceded in death by his wife, Alice Owens, of 38 married years. His brother, Lloyd Owens, and sisters Loreen Harvin (James) and Catherine Crossland.
