

Remembering the life of....

Myrtle Farrell, 108, Casselton, ND and Mapleton, ND died on Friday, July 21, 2017 at Villa Maria Care Center, Fargo, ND.

Susannah Myrtle Jendro was born Dec. 6, 1908 in Fargo, ND to Joseph and Carrie (Hanson) Jendro. She grew up and attended rural schools in Cass County. Myrtle married James Farrell on Oct. 7, 1935 at St. Leo's Catholic Church in Casselton. They made their home in Casselton until 1939 when they moved to Mapleton, ND where he managed the Mapleton Coop Oil Co. Myrtle often worked alongside Jimmy changing car tires or pumping gas. Jimmy died on Dec. 22, 1979. Myrtle resided in Mapleton until 1986, when she moved back to Casselton. At the age of 102, she returned to Mapleton to live with Tom and Jean Madsen and in January of 2016, she entered Villa Maria.

She was a faithful member of St. Leo's Catholic Church. She was known for her quilting which she did up until the last couple of years. She quilted nearly 100 of them each year for several years. She put her seamstress abilities to work making wedding dresses and other clothing. Myrtle also enjoyed gardening. While in Mapleton, her home was known as a community storm home where kids would come if the weather was bad. They thoroughly enjoyed sharing their home.

She was preceded in death by her husband; brother, Mark Jendro; and two sisters, Clara Wittmann and Hazel Trom. She is survived by many nieces and nephews.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Life is like a quilt

*Life is like a patchwork quilt
And each little patch is a day,
Some patches are rosy, happy and bright
And some are dark and gray.*

*But each little patch as it is fitted in,
And sewn to keep it together,
Makes a finished block in this life of ours,
Filled with sunshine and rainy weather.*

*So let me work on life's patchwork quilt,
Through the rainy days and the sun,
Trusting that when I have finished my quilt,
The Master will say, "Well done."*

*"I shall pass through this world but once.
Any good thing therefore that I can do, or any kindness that I can show, let me do it now. Let me not defer it or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again"*
