

Remembering the life of....

Gregory A. Grant, 68, of Horace, ND, died Tuesday, October 31, 2017, at his home.

Gregory Allen Grant was born April 3, 1949, in Fargo, ND, the son of Tollof and Alice (Ulness) Grant. He was raised on a farm near Horace and attended grade school in Horace and graduated from West Fargo High School in 1967. Greg then graduated as an electrician from the North Dakota State College of Science in Wahpeton. He was employed for a time at Border States Electric and as an electrician in West Fargo. Greg then began an over 40 year career until his death as a receiving supervisor at Fargo Tank later becoming TrueNorth Steel. Greg and Kathleen Thingstad were married in 1970 at Faith Lutheran Church in West Fargo.

Greg played softball and baseball until age 40, coached peeewe basketball, and along with Kathy, assisted with many swim meets. He loved classic cars, mowing his large yard and volunteer work. He had taught confirmation at Horace Lutheran Church a number of years ago.

Grateful for having shared in his life are his wife: Kathy; daughter: Kelley Grant of Horace; son: Ryan Grant; several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and sister: Janet Anderson.

*Two tired eyes are sleeping.
Two willing hands are still;
The one who worked so hard for us,
Is resting at God's Will.
Our lips cannot speak how we loved him.
Our hearts cannot tell what to say,
But God only knows how we miss him,
In our home that is lonely today.
He was a Husband and Father so very rare,
Content in his home and always there.
On earth he toiled, in Heaven he rests.
God Bless you,
You were one of the best.*
