

Miss Me - But Let Me Go...

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free
Miss me a little- but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me - but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me - but let me go.*

Bruce M. Eggen

REMEMBERING THE LIFE OF....

Bruce M. Eggen, 64, of West Fargo, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, April 23, 2018.

Bruce Michael Eggen was born August 4, 1953, in Browns Valley, MN, to Rudolph and Esther (Stensrud) Eggen. They lived at Sisseton, SD until 1956, when the family moved to West Fargo. Bruce was educated and graduated from West Fargo Schools. He was then employed by Federal Beef/Held Beef and later Quality Meats in West Fargo. For the past 23 years, Bruce was employed by Spartan Nash in Fargo. He was once married to Merry Ottesen.

He was an avid outdoorsman, spending most weekends on the lake in South Dakota or hunting with friends North of Fargo. Bruce volunteered many years with the "Twist of Fate", an organization that makes the sport of archery more accessible to anyone regardless of physical limitations.

Bruce was preceded in death by his parents and brothers: Denis and Larry.

Grateful for having shared in his life is a son: Christopher of Fargo; 3 brothers: Randy (Diane) of Monmouth, IL, Michael (Marla) of Casselton and Kevin of West Fargo, as well as several nephews.
