

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

In remembrance of...

Clifford Arlin Jensen, 91, Colorado Springs, CO, died Monday, July 30, 2018, at Winslow Court Retirement Community in Colorado Springs.

"Cliff" was born March 26, 1927, the third of nine children to Lars and Louise (Eppler) Jensen on the family farm in Glyndon, Minnesota. Farming was the priority until World War II. When he turned 18 Cliff entered the Army to serve his country. Cliff married Adeline Schobinger on July 16, 1949. They were blessed in their marriage of sixty-nine years with six children, sixteen grandchildren, thirty-one great grandchildren, and two great-great grandchildren.

Cliff was a Union Mason while being a loving father and husband. Cliff, nicknamed by the entire family as "Papo" was well known for his fierce bear hugs. He found strength and comfort in the Lord and set a wonderful example for the entire family to follow. He will be reunited with his parents, four brothers, and a grand-daughter. He leaves behind his wife Adeline, and children Randy (Pam), Kevin (Leslie), Ric (Donna), Terri (Kevin), Tonya (Mike), and Keith (Deb). His was a life well lived.
