I see trees of green, red roses too. I see them bloom for me and you
And I think to myself,
What a wonderful world

I see skies of blue and clouds of white. The bright blessed day, the dark sacred night
And I think to myself,
What a wonderful world

The colors of the rainbow, so pretty in the sky
Are also on the faces of people goin' by
I see friends shakin' hands, sayin' "How do you do?"
They're really sayin', "I love you."

I hear babies cry, I watch them grow
They'll learn much more than I'll ever know
And I think to myself, What a wonderful world
Yes, I think to myself, What a wonderful world

I hear babies cry, I watch them grow
They'll learn much more than I'll ever know
And I think to myself, What a wonderful world
Yes, I think to myself, What a wonderful world

- Louis Armstrong

Shirley Anderson, 65, Harwood, ND died on Saturday, Nov. 10, 2018 at Rosewood On Broadway, Fargo, ND.

She continued her schooling at Mayville State where she received her teaching degree with a minor in music. Shirley taught for 4 years at Argyle, MN and also coached varsity girls basketball. She was also a science and math institute mentor in the area.

Upon retiring, she worked at the Harwood State Bank, Zion Lutheran Church and did some substitute teaching.

Her family and friends were so important to her. They became her rock through her cancer journey since 2012. She enjoyed going to her kids and grandkids activities and was active in the community. Shirley also enjoyed summers spent at the lake. She had many social groups that provided enjoyment, support and friendships that will last forever.

Shirley is survived by her husband, Don, two sons, Brian and Matthew, and two grandchildren, Parker and Karley, all of Harwood; six siblings, Beverly (Tom) Burke of Pembina, Bob (Jill) of Athens, GA, Ron (Peggy) of Pembina, Herb (Eva) of Weslaco, TX, Harold of Pembina and Judy (Lynn) Schroeder of Cavalier, ND.
