

Remembering the life of...

Cleo W. Natvig, 97, Casselton, ND died on Monday, May 6, 2019 at Essentia Health, Fargo, ND.

Cleo Wilhelmina Christiansen was born Jan. 1, 1922 in Harmony Township near Casselton, ND to Chris and Martha (Lehrke) Christiansen. She graduated from high school in Casselton and married Gilhart Natvig on Nov. 26, 1941 in Long Beach, CA. Following his discharge from the US Navy, they made their home in the Casselton area. Cleo worked for many years at the George Howe Farm as a housekeeper and cook. Gil died March 21, 1998. She lived in Casselton before moving to Sheyenne Crossings in West Fargo in 2015.

Cleo enjoyed sewing, crocheting and gardening. At Martin's Church, she was active in the choir, women's circles and quilting group. She was a member of the VFW and American Legion Auxiliaries. Cleo and Gil enjoyed traveling - making it to nearly all the states in the United States. While on the farm, they had a cat named Susie and a Siberian husky dog named, Loki.

She is survived by a son, William (Linda Gaughan) Natvig of West Fargo, ND and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Cleo was preceded in death by her husband, Gil; son, Kenneth; four brothers, Clayton, Walter, Glenn and Kent; and a sister, Marie.

Celebrating the life of

You are a child of the universe no less than
the trees and the stars;
you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you,
no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God,
whatever you conceive Him to be.

And whatever your labors and aspirations,
in the noisy confusion of life,
keep peace in your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery, and broken dreams,
it is still a beautiful world.

Be cheerful. Strive to be happy.

- Max Ehrmann
