

Remembering the life of....

Bryan D. Anderson, 33, West Fargo, ND passed away Wednesday, July 29, 2020 at Sanford Hospital, Fargo.

Bryan Duane Anderson was born on July 16, 1987 at Fargo to Duane and Leah (Crooks) Anderson. Bryan grew up in West Fargo, graduating from Westside High School in 2005. He started working at Sunmart in high school and was there for 10 years before he started working at Fraser; a job that he really enjoyed.

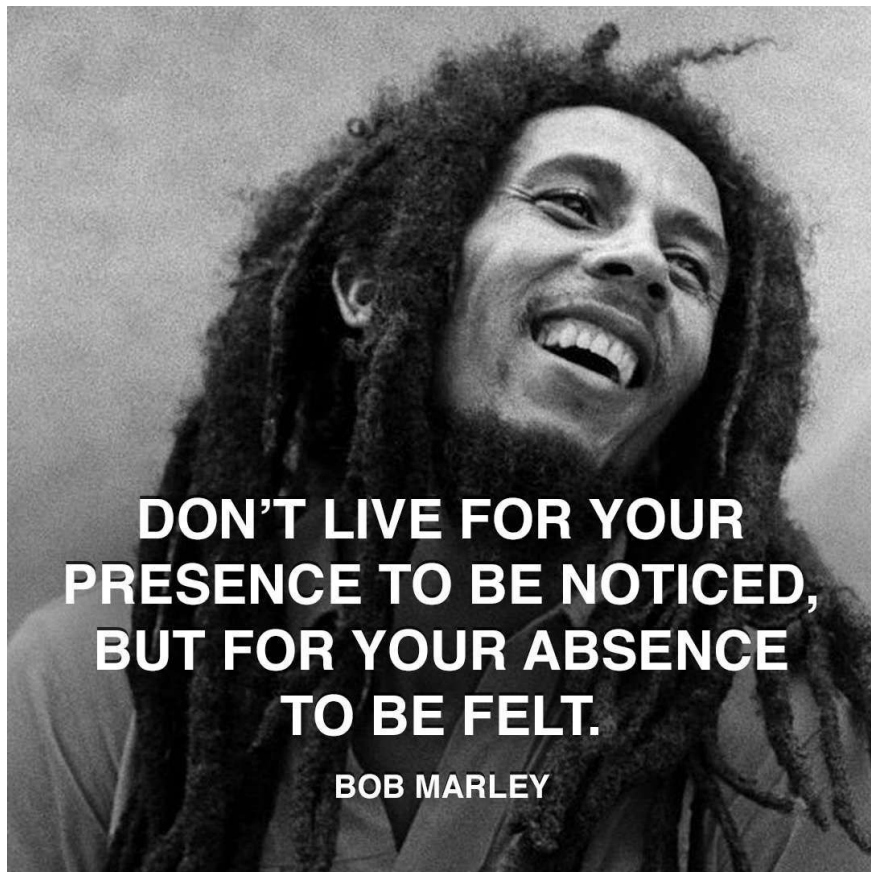

Bryan liked to Frisbee Golf, go to concerts, collect hats, and spend time teaching his son, Blake the important things of life. He also enjoyed relaxing with his family at Devils Lake, fishing there and starting campfires where he was known as "fire bug".

Bryan is survived by his parents Duane and Leah Anderson, of West Fargo, ND, significant other, Beth Olgerison and their son Blake Anderson Olgerson, sisters: April (Troy Smedshammer) and Christina Anderson, both of West Fargo, and Rachael Anderson (Jeremy Tibiatowski), of Grand Forks, ND along with aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Bryan was preceded in death by his grandparents and uncle Daryl Anderson.

Due to Covid restrictions, family requests that all guests wear face masks.
