

In Loving Memory Of

Oh Angie, Where Art Thou?

The scar, the emptiness

Is always there

In the morning over coffee

Scrambling through the day

Putting away dishes

Lying in bed thinking

About days gone

About days to come

And the ache never leaves

Only warm and loving memories

Ease the pain of loss

Of a loving friend

Of a beautiful soul

Footprints

One night a man had a dream...

He was walking along the beach with the Lord, and across the sky flashed scenes from his life.

*In each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand;
one made by him, and the other by the Lord.*

When the last scene of his life flashed before him,

he looked at the footprints in the sand, and noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the worst times of his life.

This bothered him, so he asked the Lord about it.

"Lord, You said that once I decided to follow You, You'd walk with me all the way.

*But, I've noticed that during times of trouble
there is only one set of footprints.*

I don't understand why You left me when I needed You most."

*The Lord replied, "My precious child, I love you and would never leave you... During your times of trouble where you see only one set of footprints,
I was carrying you."*

Angie Bonnett

Remembering the life of....

Angie Bonnett of Fargo, ND, fought a life-long battle with a rare blood disorder. Her body was tired, and she lost her battle on Saturday, August 22, 2020 at the age of 47.

Angela Marie Bonnett was born August 31, 1972 at Junction City, Kansas, where her parents Roy and Valerie (Odegard) Bonnett lived while Roy served in the military. Angie grew up in West Fargo and graduated from West Fargo High School in 1991.

Angie always made the best of her life and illness. She loved her family deeply, and she is remembered as a spiritual person. Angie was an incredibly special person and she will be dearly missed by her friends and family.

She is survived by her parents, Valerie and Roy Bonnett; her long-time partner and best friend, Robert Luckett; her brother and his fiancé, Paul Bonnett & Carrie Skaj; nieces & nephews: Libbie, Luke & Lane, and Lydia & Landon; her maternal grandmother, Phyllis Odegard; maternal uncle, Craig Odegard; maternal aunt & uncle, Debra & Mike Hennen; maternal cousins, Missy, John & Amber; paternal aunt, Sheila Bergemann; and paternal cousins, Curtis & Rita .

Angie was preceded in death by her paternal grandfather Palmer Odegard, and her paternal grandparents, Anna & George Bonnett.

The Bonnett family would like to thank Dr. Nathan Kobrinsky for the many years of extraordinary care he gave Angie as her life-long physician, and for the special relationship he even had with her family
