

A CELEBRATION OF LIFE

*God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

BRENDA EGGE

Remembering the life of....

Brenda L. Egge, 65, of West Fargo, ND, passed away November 9, 2020.

Brenda was born in Bismarck, ND, to James and Darlene (Humann) Schatz on August 20, 1955. Brenda grew up on the family farm north of Linton, ND and graduated from Linton High School in 1973. In the spring of 1972, Brenda met Duane Egge and were married December 28, 1974, at Peace Lutheran Church, Fargo, ND.

Genealogy became Brenda's passion. They traveled through many states, searching through libraries, history centers, and court houses to find any history on Duane's and her family. In 2016, Brenda published a book titled "Gottlieb Schatz Family History. In 2018, the German's from Russia Heritage Society awarded Brenda first-place winner for the years GRHS Family History Book Competition, she was very proud of this accomplishment.

Brenda is survived by her husband: Duane; brothers: Bruce (Alice) Schatz of Linton, ND, and Steven Schatz of Milford, OH, niece: Carmen (Craig) Wald; nephew: Craig Schatz; three great-nieces: Jane, Natalie, and Clair Wald.
