

Cherishing the Memories

TO YOU MOTHER< IN APPRECIATION

I came into this world and you were there to love and protect me; I came into this world and you there to make my way safe and secure. You were there to encourage and reward me for my accomplishments. You gave of yourself through times of limited finances, through times when you were tired or ill, through times when you sacrificed for me. You established strong goals, living as an example of what you expected of your children. You were my greatest teacher, shaping my strengths and weaknesses into the feelins and values I have today. If I am kind, it is because you taught me. If I have patience, it is because you exhibited it. If I have wisdom, it is because you believed in me. I came into this world you were there, and I am better for it.

Beverly Lois Colby

Remembering the life of....

Beverly Colby, 92, of Grand Forks, N.D., died on December 31, 2020 at Altru Hospital in Grand Forks.

Beverly Lois Olson was born and raised in Fargo, the daughter of John and Mary (Glasbrenner) Olson. She graduated from Fargo Central High School in 1945 and worked in the Manchester Building until her marriage to Donald Colby in March, 1949.

She worked as a homemaker while they raised their four children, and after they were grown she once again worked outside the home, this time as a cook at West Fargo High School. She also worked at Head Start for about 8 years until her retirement in 1990. She moved to Grand Forks in 2018.

Beverly enjoyed bowling, gardening, belonging to several card clubs, the V.F.W., and being a grandma, great-grandma, and great-great-grandma.

She is survived by her two children, Susan (Gary) Morris, Grand Forks, N.D., and Curtis (Joan) Colby, Billings, MT; grandchildren, Matt (Kaity) Colby, Sheila (Jeffrey) Morris, Judy (Peter) Hibdon, and Mike (Karee) Morris; nine great-grandchildren; and 1 great-great-grandson.

She was preceded in death by her parents; five siblings; and children Gail Williams and Duane Colby.
