IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Two tired eyes are sleeping.

Two willing hands are still;

The one who worked so hard for us,

Is resting at God's Will.

Our lips cannot speak how we loved him.

Our hearts cannot tell what to say,

But God only knows how we miss him,

In our home that is lonely today.

He was a Husband and Father so very rare,

Content in his home and always there.

On earth he toiled, in Heaven he rests.

God Bless you,

You were one of the best.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
LEE ELLIS PFINGSTEN
