JARRED "SMALLZ" FALLER

Jarred J. "Smallz" Faller, 34, Fargo, ND passed away at the Sanford Hospital ER due to a motorcycle accident.

Jarred James Faller was born on June 7, 1986 in Rugby, ND to Kevin Jundt and Connie Johnson. He grew up in Grafton, ND and went to school there. As time went on, he got his CDL license and started driving semi for Altendorf Trucking. He loved getting behind the wheel of his 18-wheeler. Jarred had a very roller-coaster life, a lot of ups and downs, but he never gave up. As time went on Jarred moved to Fargo and was a welder and later on started driving semi for DTL Trucking and gave his boss Paul a wild ride; but he never gave up on Jarred. He was always there for him. Then Jarred joined a bike club and bought a Harley Davidson motorcycle. This was his enjoyment and he also loved spending time with his three children: Serenity, Faith, and Alex. Jarred left this world doing what he loved the most, riding his Harley. We will all miss you! Rest in Peace Now!

Jarred is survived by his three children, Serenity Faller, Faith and Alex Ziegenhagen; his father, Kevin Jundt; mother, Connie Johnson; step-parents, Marla Jundt & Milo Johnson; sisters, Katrina Johnson and April Matthews; grandparents, Rose Faller and Lorraine Shjeive. Other survivors include his special little buddy "Brody"; his special guidance in life, Paul; and also several cousins, aunts, and uncles.

Jarred was preceded in death by his grandparents: Eva, Kathy, and Eugene Jundt, Frank Faller, aunt Deb Faller, and cousin Amy Sollin.

Honorary pallbearers will be his former brothers of the Sons of Silence, North Dakota Chapter.
