

A CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Miss Me - But Let Me Go...

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free
Miss me a little- but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me - but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me - but let me go.*

DAN DUNCAN

Remembering the life of....

Daniel A. Duncan, 68, Fargo, passed away Thursday, June 10, 2021, at Sanford on Broadway in Fargo.

Dan was born May 7, 1953, in New Haven, CT, son of James & Eleanor (Laine) Duncan. At the age of 5, his family moved to Fargo where he was raised and educated. Following graduation from Fargo South High, Dan owned and operated restaurants. In Gary, MN he ran Gary Café, DJ's Café in Thompson, ND and the White House Café in Fargo. Dan worked as a cook at the Fargo Highway Host from 1969 to 1973. Dan and Jacalyn Bruggeman were married January 26, 1973. From 1975 to 1980, he worked at the Radford Company as a window & door carpenter and truck driver. Dan then was employed as a truck driver at Cole Paper from 1984 to 2016, when he retired because of cancer.

Dan's hobbies included hunting, fishing, motorcycle riding and woodworking. He was a member of the Goldwing Bike Club. He dearly loved his family, grandchildren, spending time at the lakes and going places.

Surviving are his wife: Jacalyn; children: Joe (Jodi) Duncan, Rod Duncan and Chris (Kristina) Duncan; grandchildren: Alex, Austin, & Ellie Duncan; siblings: Jay (Mer) Duncan, Dean (Brenda) Duncan & Paul (Carol) Duncan; brothers-in-law: Keith, Greg & Jeff (Cheryl), Terry (Karen) and Steve Bruggeman; sister-in-law: Kathi (Mark Lundquist) Bruggeman; step-family: Richard (Joy) Williams, James (Patti) Williams, Herbert (Lisa) Williams and Kay (Paul) Hannaher.

Preceding him in death are his parents: James & Eleanor Duncan, step-mother: Hisako Duncan; mother & father-in-law: Dale & Muriel Bruggeman; grandparents: Arthur & Lillian Laine and Hiram & Edna Duncan.
