Obituary

It was a glorious day on August 5, 1952 when a happy, brown, bouncing baby boy named Lawrence Eugene Felton was born to Willie S. Felton and Annie S. Brown- Felton in Elizabeth City, NC.

Lawrence attended the local schools in Elizabeth City, NC but due to illness, he had to withdraw at an early age. Lawrence was able, at different times during his life to carry his sickness well, with the assistance of medical providers, family, and friends.

Lawrence was a very loving person, who never met a stranger. He would always have a joke for you followed by a big laugh. There was nothing like a radio and some quartet music which he often sang along with, which made him happy.

Lawrence was preceded in death by his parents of Elizabeth City, NC and brother, Alphonso Wayne Felton of Washington, D.C. He leaves to cherish his memory one brother, Reverend John W. Felton (Katherine) of Elizabeth City, NC; two nephews, Sean M. Lister (Denise) and Jermaine B. Wilson; two nieces, Kenya L. Wilson Turner (Anthony) and Jeneen Jackson; an uncle, Haywood Brown, Sr. of Elizabeth City, NC; longtime friends, Maragret L. Lister and Conrad Williams, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Farewell

Farewell family
I am tired and need my rest
I must go to God
For my soul has truly been blessed
Do not weep and mourn
Because you won't see me anymore
I'll be waiting to meet to you
In that great reunion on the other shore.
