

A Tribute "Miss Me But Let Me Go"

I have come to the end of the road,

And the sun has set for me.

Please don't sit in a gloom-filled room,

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little but not too long,

And not with your head bowed low.

Remember the good times we often shared,

Miss me, but let me go.

For this journey we all must take,

And each must go alone.

It's all apart of the Master's plan,

A step on the road to home.

When you get lonely and sad at heart,

Turn to family and friends you know.

Bury your sorrows by serving the Lord.

He is an awesome God.

Miss me, but let me go.

To my mother, my friend,

I was by your side, loving you but watching you fade away.

My heart was breaking but I could not make you stay.

Our family chain is broken now, but memories live forever.

Your golden heart stopped beating as you claimed eternal rest.

God proved to us He only takes the "best".

Sorrowfully submitted by

Your daughter,

Phondia Sanders Morning

Heartfelt Thanks

We, the Family of the late Maggie Virginia Harvey Sanders would like to acknowledge the many acts of kindness expressed during this time.

Your prayers, calls, card and presence have meant the world to each of us. You have truly lightened the load. To those who traveled far and wide we greatly appreciate your sacrifice.

We do extend a special thanks to the Hospice Staff. May God continue to bless each and everyone of you.
