" When I'm Gone "

When I come to the end of my journey; and I travel my last weary mile; just forget if you can, that I ever frowned and remember only the smile. Forget unkind words I have spoken, remember some good I have done, forget that I ever had a headache and remember I've had loads of fun. Forget that I have stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way. Remember I have fought some hard battles and won. At the close of the day, then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have you sad for a day, but in summer just gather some flowers, and remember the place where I lay. And, come in the evening when the sun paints the sky in the west, stand for a few moments beside me; and remember only my best.

Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones; oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, safely home in Heaven . . . at last.
