OBITUARY

"Let your life so shine before men."
Matthew 5:16

Wilma Marie "Polly" Parker was born to Jessie Mae Lee on November 6, 1926 in Ripley, TN. Her mom wanted the best for her daughter, so she was raised by Sam & Eula Lake; she was one of nine children. She graduated class of 1946 from Lauderdale County Trade School. The next year she married the love of her life, Leamon Parker, Sr., on June 15th. Together they yielded 12 children from their union.

Wilma found solace in her faithfulness to the Lord. She accepted Christ at an early age. She was also a prominent member of St. James C.M.E. where she served as the treasurer and a choir member until its closing in 2012. A major part of her life was spent cultivating the lives around her in and out of church. When she wasn't in church she took care of her in-laws, as well as, some of her grandchildren. Her passion as a homemaker and gardener enriched everyone who tasted her fruits and vegetables.

She was preceded in death by husband Leamon Parker, Sr., granddaughters Carolyn Alexandria & Nicole Renea Parker; grandsons Adrian Walker & Sampson Harris, Jr.; a sister Jae Lee; and many brothers.

She leaves to cherish her memory, brother, Johnny Frank Lee and brother-in-law, David Parker.

Her legacy continues through children: Larry Joe Parker, Linda Fay Burnett, Jerry Leon Parker, David & Betty Parker (married), Kenneth B. & Jackie Parker (married), Leamon Parker, Jr., Dewayne Parker, Danny Parker, Annie & Sampson Harris (married), Teresa Ann Evans, Dianell Parker, and Mark & Monique Parker (married).

Lastly, she was an endearing matriarch to 26 grandchildren, 31 great grandchildren, and 5 great-great grandchildren. There are numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends also left to carry her legacy.

Psalm 116:15 : "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

2 Corinthians 5:8: "We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord."
