"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation.
The old has passed away: behold, the new has come."
11 Corinthians 5:17

Exavian Montrell Nixon was born in Haywood County, Tennessee on April 12, 1980 to Billy Ray Nixon, Sr. and Joyce Hobbs Allen. Exavian was educated in various schools throughout Haywood County and Chicago Public School Systems. As a child, he was baptized and accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. A loveable person who had many friends, Exavian enjoyed spending time with his mother, children, and friends.

After finishing school and spending a few years in various cities in the Chicago area, Exavian came back home to the Haywood County and Ripley Area. It was here that he met and married his wife, Yolanda.

Exavian, who was always a hard worker, finally, although early, answered his Master's Call to come home to walk the streets of gold, alongside Him.

He leaves to cherish the memories of his life, his loving wife, Yolanda Clark-Nixon of Ripley, TN, two children, Zane Amara Haley and Stelhia Pearson, of Ripley, TN, his mother, Joyce Hobbs (Alfonso) Allen, father, Billy Ray Nixon, Sr. of Ripley, TN, two sisters, LaCondra Sloan and LaTora Nay Thomas of Ripley, TN, four brothers, Billy Ray Nixon, Jr., Cedric Antonio Hobbs, Marcus Dewayne Hobbs, and Jason Donell Nixon, all of Ripley, TN, three step-brothers, Alfonso Allen, Jr. Keevin Toomes, and Marcell Allen, Jr., all of Ripley, TN, as well as a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and his many, many, friends.
