Marilyn was preceded in death by her husband Alfred Douglas Corley, brother Jack Jiles and Raymond Longbotham Jr., sister Pat Richardson, only daughter Janice Marie (Peterson) Deisher and granddaughter Paige Diane (Hees) Lovell.

Marilyn is survived by her brother Larry Jiles of Hemet, CA, and sister Shirley McLaughlin of Albuquerque, NM; step-children Craig Corley of Athens, TX and Steve Corley of Duncanville, TX; son in law Mike Deisher of Edgewood, TX; grandsons Greg Hees and wife Kathy of Tucson, AZ, and Scott Hees and wife Lisa of Pinehurst, NC; step granddaughters Kelly Corley and husband Chris of Austin, TX and Leigh Ann Corley of Austin, TX; great grandchildren Amanda Banks and husband Brandon of Fayetteville, AR, Cameron Hees of Aberdeen, NC, Connor Hees of Charlotte, NC, Keelan Smith of McKinney, TX; and great, great grandson Bradley Banks of Fayetteville, AR.

Marilyn was born in Post, Texas on January 1, 1923. She was one of six children of Lynn and Sibyl Jiles. She graduated from Burleson High School and moved to Fort Worth, Texas where she started her first job at Montgomery Wards Department Store Warehouse as a roller-skate-wearing order fulfillment clerk. In her later years, Marilyn lived with her sister Pat in Albuquerque, NM where they enjoyed daily high stakes bingo at the casino. Marilyn was a loyal Dallas Cowboys and Texas Rangers Fan. When she moved to Pinehurst, Marilyn would take a nap during the day to watch west coast games that started at 10:00 pm. Marilyn was always kind, and friendly to everyone she met. We will all deeply miss her, but she will be in our thoughts, stories and hearts for the rest of our days.

Marilyn will lay in rest next to her daughter Janice Deisher in Edgewood, Texas.
