Milton Elvie Tuck Sept. 24, 1933 - Aug. 6, 2017

Milton Elvie Tuck 83 of Keizer, formerly of Albany, passed away on Sunday at his home.

He was born in Newark, Ohio, the only child of R.O. and Beulah Tuck. He lived his early life in Kentucky, graduated from Bowling Green Business College.

He worked in agricultural related business.

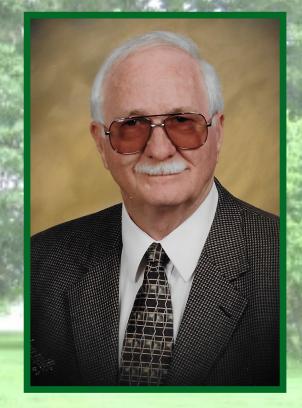

In the 1960's, Milton came to Oregon for a vacation and fell in love with the Northwest.

He was a seed trader in the Willamette Valley for various companies, having founded American Seed Producers in 1989. After many years in that industry, he finally retired at the age of 76.

Milton was always active in all churches he attended, working with kids and being a greeter.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

He is survived by his wife Barbara and family; Zan Tuck (Andrea) of Longview, Washington, Brian Biery (Shannon Darby) of Beaverton, Sherry Lintner (Gordon) of Salem, Debbie Gilstrap (Tad) of Corpus Christi, Texas; eight grandchildren and one great grandchild. Also considered family is Bry Gilstrap (Sandy) of Keizer and numerous other "adopted" grandkids.

"When our Father dances with his children, what a glorious day that will be. To share in His eternal glory, to know Him as we are known. Each step will bring us closer to His everlasting love.

Here in our physical bodies

our praise is like water.

When we receive our new body

our praise will be like honey."
