

In Loving Memory of Georgia Ann Knapp

September 12, 1947 ~ September 23, 2018

Life

No more face to look upon
Always knowing you're forever
Loved and never forgotten
Life is hard, life is fun
You will forever be the one

To love you, to hold you
Is what we loved to do
Always remembering your
Love is unconditional and true

A mother, wife, grandmother and true friend
You'll always be one true blessing
From here to eternity

The time has come for you to soar
Be free and have the pain no more.
Love is wonderful when it's true
We as your family and friends have been truly
Blessed to be loved by
You.
