

Angela Paige Schlabach
December 21, 1970 - December 22, 2019

Angie P. Schlabach, 49 of Albany, passed away on Sunday in her home.

Angela was born in Lebanon to Carlo "Dick" and Beverly (Hooley) Stutzman. She grew up in Albany and graduated from South Albany High School in 1989. Angie and Larry were married on February 6, 1993 and moved to Jefferson, Oregon. On August 1st, 1999 the two traveled to California to meet their daughter, Journee. They would raise her in Albany, Oregon.

Long road trips were her favorite. For some time, Angie was a nail technician, but her favorite "job" was being a homemaker and being with her daughter. Angie's sense of humor will always be remembered by many, as well as her love for her family.

Angela is survived by husband Larry Schlabach; daughter Journee Schlabach of Albany; her two sisters, Nicole Stutzman of Tualatin and Heather Stutzman of Albany; and her grandmother Ruth Schlabach of Albany.

A celebration of life will be at 3 p.m. Sunday, January 5, at Neighborhood Church in Albany Oregon.

AASum-Dufour Funeral Home is handling the arrangements (www.aasum-dufour.com).

OFFICIANT

Pastor Kelly Dufour

Do you not know? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom. He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.

-Isaiah 28-31

I thank my God every time I remember you.

-Philippians 1:3

Everyone is invited to a reception in the fellowship hall immediately following the service.
