

*The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the Shadow of death, I will fear no evil;
for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.*

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

*Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Charlotte M. Smith passed away after an extended illness.

She was born in Rensselaer, Indiana to Charles H. and Beatrice (Peiffer) Burrows.

In 1948, they loaded all their possessions into an old GMC truck (Navy Grummy) and headed west for Albany, OR., since it was close to Oregon State University, so their son could attend college.
