In Loving Memory

William “Bill” Phillips

1932 — 2019

And Those Who Love Me...

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do.

Your mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,

Be happy we had so many years together.

I gave you my love, you can only guess,

How much you gave to me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown,

But now it's time I traveled alone.

So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must;

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part,

So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on,

So call if you need me I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me,

I'll be near and if you listen with your heart,

You'll hear all my love, soft and clear.

And when you must come by this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile, "Welcome Home."
