On September 18, 1948, Don was united in marriage to Marjorie Mae Pierson in Jackson, Minnesota. This couple was blessed with five children: Howard, Brian, Jeffrey, Gail and Thomas. They spent their married lives in the Albert City community, where Don owned and operated an electrical and plumbing business for more than fifty years.

Don was a lifelong member of Our Savior's Lutheran Church. He also served on the Albert City Fire Department for many years and volunteered many hours to the Albert City Threshermen and Collector Show and the Albert City Historical Museum. Don was an accomplished horseshoe thrower, avid card player and loved to solve crossword puzzles. He and Marge enjoyed watching and feeding the many different kinds of birds that frequented their backyard.
