Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair . Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thanks you so much whatever the part.

Obituary

Frances Marie Haynes was born February 9, 1957 to Willie Haynes and Lucille Flenoury Haynes. Mary Thomas, her 1st cousin named her. Frances sister Mable, was her go to person, especially if she felt she needed things in order. Catherine, her neice, was her shopping partner. Frances has a special place in her heart for everyone and gave all of us special memories. Frances attended Leggett ISD school in Leggett, Texas. She enjoyed family, church, music, reading, drawing, playing organ, and basketball. She enjoyed dressing up as well. Frances was the most honest person. Despite of her illness she lived life as much as possible to the fullest. In 2006, Frances moved to Beaumont Texas with her daughter Timeka. But every chance she got to come back home to Livingston, she would be for sure to see Aunt Dupie (Gloria Wilson) and Aunt Ruthie Dublin (Lou). Frances attended New Fellowship Baptist Church in Beaumont, Texas. Frances is preceded by her mother Lucille Haynes, Father Willie Haynes, Grandmother Rebecca Lewis Franklin, Grandfather Douglas Flenoury and Grandfather Frank Franklin ((Man), brothers Nathan Haynes, Charles Ray Haynes, Sisters Mary Lou Haynes, Dorthine Haynes Freeman. She is survived by daughter Timeka Linsey (Frederick Linsey), Sister Mable Gardner, sister Callene Haynes, Sister Betty Haynes and Brother Willie Haynes, Grandson Damon Wallace (Dominique Wallace) Granddaughter TyEsha Wallace (Deyshundria Mitchell) Grandson Henry Wallace (Dawn Climer), Grandson D'morion George and grandson Marcus Hale and a host of nieces nephews great grandchildren and relatives.

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though i have gone into that gentle night. Grieve if you will, but not for long , Upon my soul's sweet flight

I am at peace, my soul's at rest, there is no need for tears, For with your love i was so blessed, For all those many years

There is no pain, I suffer not, The fear is now all gone. Put now these things out of your thoughts. In your memory I live on.

Remember not my fight for breath,
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death But celebrate my life

To My Mother

Memories unfold as I think of you. You were my mother. You suffered in silence these couple of month an illness that wouldn't go away. Life here on earth will definitely be different and i have an emptiness in my heart. A part of me would like to be selfish and wish you could still be here with me but another part of me is relieved you're no longer suffering. So Momma take your rest. I will be okay .
Love always, your daughter Kinmy
