

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Matthew Harvey wishes to express our sincere gratitude for your many acts of kindness and expressions of love during our time of bereavement.

May I Go Now?

“Do you think the time is right?
May I say good-bye to pains and many sleepless nights?
So can I take the step beyond and set my spirit free. I didn't want to go at first, I fought with all my might.
But something seemed to draw me to a warm and loving light. I know you're sad and afraid because I see your tears. I'll not be far, I promise, so let go of your tears.
I hope you'll always know that my spirit will be close to you wherever you may go. So thank you so much for loving me you know I loved you too.
That's why it's hard to say goodbye and end this life with you. So love me now and for all times and let me hear you say, Because you care so much for me you'll let me go today.”

Obituary

Mr. Matthew Phillip Harvey, one of four children born to the late Freddie and Margaret Currie Harvey, was born on November 15, 1944. He departed from this life on Sunday, June 14, 2020 at Mesun Health Services in Lawrenceville, Georgia.

Matthew graduated from Saint Pauls High School and soon after married his late wife, Annie Louise Gilmore Harvey. Together, they raised two daughters, Melanie Harvey-Guinn and Christina Harvey-Stephens. He began his career working in a yarn factory, but soon found his true passion, truck driving, and he drove for many years. Matthew attended Solid Rock United Holiness Church while he lived in North Carolina and was a member of the All Male Choir. He also attended City of Zion Ministry, located in Georgia.

Matthew is preceded in death by his father, Freddie Harvey, mother, Margaret Currie Harvey, wife, Annie Louise Gilmore-Harvey, daughter, Christina Louise Stephens, and a sister, Debbie Harvey.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Melanie H Guinn (Anthony), sister, Bertha McCormick, brother, Terry Harvey (Vastine), five grandchildren; Xavius Perkins, Anthony Guinn Jr., Aubrey Guinn, Deshaunte Stephens and Deonte Stephens, one great granddaughter, Amira Stephens, son-in-law, Marshall Stephens. He also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends. A special thanks goes out to Bertha McCormick and his nephew, Gary McCormick, who spent a great deal of time taking him to doctor's appointments, talking to his doctors, getting his medications and just stepping in to make sure he was being cared for in the best way possible.
