

LOVING MEMORIES

OF A SPECIAL

Son

To lose someone so special is really hard to bear
it hardly seems believable that you're no longer there

You left us far too early before your time, it seems and now you'll never have the chance to fulfil all those dreams

However hard it is though we'll take comfort in the thought of all the memories we have and the happiness you brought

You always lived life to the full but ours won't be the same until the day when we can see your smiling face again

Acknowledgements

We, the family of Mr. Jereme Dontrel Handon acknowledge every prayer, visit, card, and service rendered, also every smile so tender. Each helped us to find the strength to bear the loss of the one we hold so dear. It was a great comfort indeed to see you in the time of our sorrow and needs; so from our hearts which you tried to help mend, we sincerely thank you again for being such wonderful friends.

The Obituary

"He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart; yet no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end. I know that there is nothing better for people than to be happy and to do good while they live. That each of them may eat and drink and find satisfaction in all their toil – this is the gift of God."

-Ecclesiastes 3:11-13

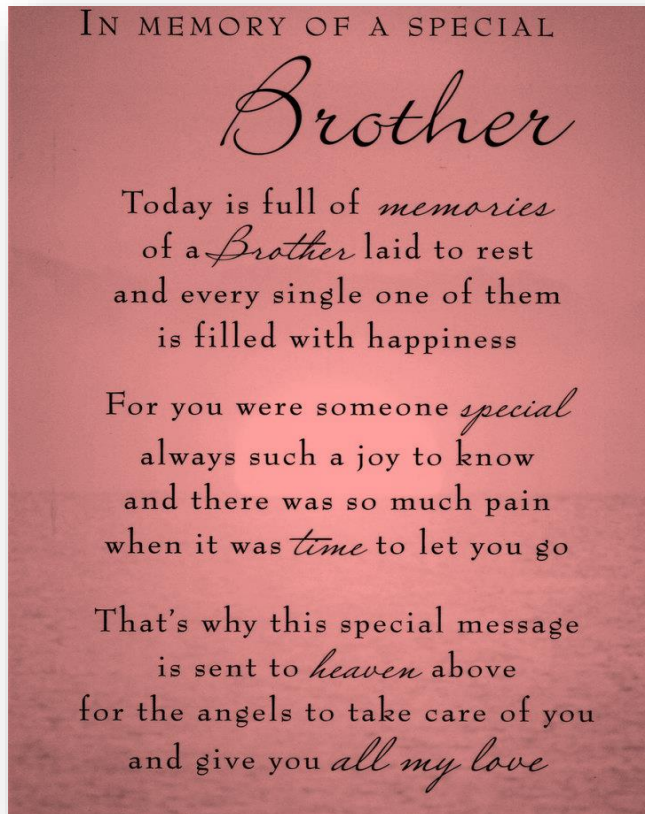

Mr. Jereme Dontrel Handon, transitioned to his Eternal Home on Friday evening, July 31, 2020 in Fayetteville, North Carolina. He graced the world with his presence on Sunday, January 14, 1990 to Sandra Handon McQueen and Jonathan Ray at First Health Moore Regional Hospital in Pinehurst, North Carolina. As a child, he traveled and performed with the Kingdom Builders Theatrical team and attended the Public Schools of Hoke County in Raeford, North Carolina. Currently, employed with the Smithfield Foods of Tar Heel, North Carolina and a proud member of the Huey P. Newton Gun Club.

Jereme was affectionately known by family and friends as "Budd" and/or "BigSteppa!" Jereme worshipped at St. John Missionary Baptist Church in Shannon, North Carolina, where he listened attentively to the gifted singing and piano playing of his mother. He loved hearing her sing as he followed her around to minister at several churches throughout the years.

Jereme always loved to have a good time. He was truly a gentle giant and showed love to everyone he encountered. He knew the true meaning of being a loyal and sincere friend. Jereme had a heart of gold and always enjoyed a good laugh. We will miss his jokes, laughter, comedy, wittiness but mostly that beautiful smile. Everyone knew when Budd or BigSteppa was in the house. Jereme was always happy and full of life. He was very excited about becoming a father this coming December to his little princess, Tamiyah Donyea Handon. Jereme will be missed; for now, a void is truly there; that personality and laughter we can no longer share.

Leaving to cherish his fondest memories are: his devoted and loving mother, Sandra Handon McQueen (Calverette) of the home and his father, Jonathan Ray (Miranda McCall) of Fayetteville, North Carolina; his siblings: his beautiful and loving sister, LaTasha Handon of Fayetteville, North Carolina; Kadajah Ray, of Raeford, North Carolina;

Janarian Ray; Jacobe Ray; and Somaya McCall all of Fayetteville, North Carolina. Stepsiblings: David Shelton, of Texas; Tarron Shelton of Macon, Georgia; and Shamblica Elliott-Baker of Fayetteville, North Carolina. His maternal grandmother, Mary Lou Handon of Fayetteville, North Carolina. Four uncles: Karl Delk of Fayetteville, North Carolina; Johnnie Ray (Myrna) of Columbus, Ohio; Kelvin Ray (Anita) of Hampton, Virginia; and Eugene Handon (Fay) of Lumber Bridge, North Carolina. Three aunts: Lois Alexander (Archie) of Columbus, Georgia; Yvonne Monroe (Jessie) of Columbia, South Carolina; and Mara Ray (Johnny Lytch) of Garner, North Carolina. His loving godparents are Owen and Faye Daniels and two special families whom loved him dearly the McGougan Family and the Buie Family; a forever special friend, Timberly Perry of Fayetteville, North Carolina and a host of nieces, nephews, and special friends.
